

PRIESTLEY STILL OUT

WYCOMBE Wanderers, with only two wins in six home matches, have a chance to improve this poor record tonight (Tuesday) when they entertain lowly Kingstonian in a Rothmans Isthmian League Division One match.

This is a repeat of last week's game at Kingston, where Wycombe, with fortune on their side, eased to a 3-1 victory. However the K's could consider themselves unlucky to lose as they hit the woodwork on numerous occasions.

This defeat must have demoralised Kingstonian, who collapsed to a 5-1 defeat against Dagenham on Saturday to put the Essex side back at the top. It was a depressing display by Kingstonian, whose only goal came from substitute Adrian Eglite, the former Dutch star who previously played for Wealdstone in the Southern League.

That defeat — their sixth in nine games—puts them in 21st position with five points, just a point clear of bottom club Ilford who have had an alarming slip from grace. Changes are expected in the immediate future, although club officials are remaining tight lipped about what they might be.

The departure of Alan Davies means that Wycombe manager Ted Powell must make one change from the side that drew with Bishops Stortford on Saturday. One possible replacement, John Priestley, has not yet recovered from a groin injury.
